We stake our reputation on yours.

We only look as good as you do. So ImageWorks strives to offer solutions that work the way you need them to, when you need them to. Our expertise in designing and installing presentation systems comes from years of servicing them. So you can focus on your presentation and leave the details to us.

We are more than an installation and service provider. We want to be your partner. We'll take the time to understand your needs and develop a solution that will meet those needs now as well as grow with you. Whether you need a complete presentation system designed and installed from the ground up, or just need to replace an aging projector, ImageWorks is the answer.

Count on our experience.

For more than 18 years, we have installed and serviced quality presentation systems. We design each one from the point of view of a company that has repaired them. ImageWorks knows what operates smoothly and what can create challenges down the road. Because of this expertise, many presentation system integration companies come to us for service, design and installation work.

Save now and over the long haul.

ImageWorks offers very competitive prices from the start. And you won't pay inflated subcontractor costs; we use our own highly trained installation and service personnel. But that's only part of our value. When we design and install a system, we consider long-term cost savings too. That means you will get a scalable solution that can keep up with your changing needs.

Solutions that make sense and are made to last.

Simplicity and reliability go hand in hand. We won't sell you more than you need or something that's confusing to use. It will be tailored to how you work and make sense. ImageWorks never cuts corners. From the materials and components we use, to our installation techniques, our systems are built to last. We know where potential weak points are, and we design to minimize the possibility of failure and reduce potential downtime. You will experience many years of outstanding, trouble-free operation.

Up and running in a flash.

Every minute your system is not performing to your satisfaction is costly. ImageWorks is sensitive to your business' operation, and understands that time is money. If you have critical service needs, we'll respond to your call immediately. We can often be on site the same business day. And when it comes to design and installation, we'll have your presentation system set up in a timely manner.

Enjoy peace of mind in your investment.

It doesn't matter whether you purchase from us or another solution provider, ImageWorks offers the highest standard of service, training and support for your equipment. We stand behind all the work we do. We call it CustomerFIRST™ service. That means we will be there when you need us and we'll never leave you hanging. ImageWorks has your back with:

- Service contracts
